Punjab Chief Minister Sardar Usman Buzdar has directed officials to complete the construction of the zoo in Taunsa Sharif without further delay.

The chief minister said the progress report should be compiled by monitoring construction work on a daily basis. The zoo is being constructed on 400 kanals and the total cost of the project will be Rs124.2 million. "Action will be taken against officials involved in delaying the project on purpose. The completion of the project will provide quality entertainment to people," he said.
